EXPLANATIONS

1. WHEN places other than Stow and Massachusetts are named in the original records, they are given in the printed copy.

2. In all items from town records the original spelling is followed, and no attempt is made to correct errors appearing in the records or to harmonize conflicting names or dates.

3. The various spellings of a name should be examined, as items about the same family or individual might be found under different spellings.

4. Marriages and intentions of marriages are printed under the names of both parties. When both the marriage and intention of marriage are recorded, only the marriage record is printed; and where a marriage appears without the intention recorded, it is designated with an asterisk.

5. Additional information which does not appear in the original text of an item, i.e. any explanation, query, inference, or difference shown in other entries of the record, is bracketed. Parentheses are used to show the difference in the spelling of a name in the same entry, to indicate the maiden name of a wife, to enclose an imperfect portion of the original text, and to separate clauses in the original text — such as the birthplace of a parent in late records.

6. In 1831 a copy was made of the first volume of records, which has since become defaced and mutilated. Items taken from this Town Copy are so marked.

THEORY

The first part of the paper is devoted to a generalization of the well-known result of [1] on the existence of a unique solution to the problem of the motion of a rigid body in a fluid.

In the third part of the paper we consider the problem of the motion of a rigid body in a fluid with a free surface and a rigid boundary.

In the fourth part of the paper we consider the problem of the motion of a rigid body in a fluid with a free surface and a rigid boundary and a rigid boundary.

In the fifth part of the paper we consider the problem of the motion of a rigid body in a fluid with a free surface and a rigid boundary and a rigid boundary.

In the sixth part of the paper we consider the problem of the motion of a rigid body in a fluid with a free surface and a rigid boundary and a rigid boundary.

In the seventh part of the paper we consider the problem of the motion of a rigid body in a fluid with a free surface and a rigid boundary and a rigid boundary.

In the eighth part of the paper we consider the problem of the motion of a rigid body in a fluid with a free surface and a rigid boundary and a rigid boundary.

of the world, and the history of the world, is a subject of great importance, and one which has attracted the attention of many of the most distinguished writers of the age. The history of the world is a subject which has been treated in many different ways, and the results of these different treatments have been very different. Some writers have treated the history of the world as a series of events, and have tried to explain these events by the action of natural causes. Others have treated the history of the world as a series of events, and have tried to explain these events by the action of supernatural causes. Still others have treated the history of the world as a series of events, and have tried to explain these events by the action of both natural and supernatural causes.
